

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY TOLEDO

"I would highly recommend this program to any community-oriented individual either considering public service or simply as a way to build some public service skills for other community contributions."

-Michael Temple, M.B.A., President, Temple Development Corporation

For fifteen years, Leadership Academy Toledo has been preparing individuals to effectively serve their communities by instructing participants about the issues, requirements and expectations associated with public service.

Mondays, January 16 to March 27
